

The image consists of two side-by-side 10x10 grids. The left grid contains blue triangles arranged to form a shape that resembles a stylized letter 'E' or a comb. The right grid contains orange circles, each with the number '1' inside, arranged in the same pattern as the triangles in the left grid. This visualizes the concept of a shape being composed of many small, identical parts.